

Stative Verbs – Practice Using Present Progressive and Simple Present

A Dinner Party

Jane is at a dinner party. She is on the phone with a friend and is describing the party.

Image used with permission.

Look at all of the sentences Jane uses to describe the dinner party. Decide whether the verbs should be in the present progressive or the simple present. Remember to decide whether the verb is expressing a state or an action. This will help you to choose the verb tense.

1. Everyone (a) is talking (b) talks to each other.
2. Joe is cooking something that (a) is smelling (b) smells delicious!
3. All of the decorations (a) are looking (b) look beautiful!
4. Mary (a) is looking (b) looks out the window because she is bored.
5. Bob (a) is having (b) has a hat on.
6. Joe is serving two main dishes because some people (a) aren't liking (b) don't like meat.
7. Some of the guests (a) are preferring (b) prefer not to dance.
8. All of the guests (a) are having (b) have a good time.
9. Even Melissa, who usually doesn't like parties, (a) is thinking (b) thinks it's awesome!
10. Jodie, on the other hand, is not having a good time. Unfortunately, he (a) is thinking (b) thinks about his TOEFL test tomorrow.