

University of California, Irvine

International Programs

Participles Practice

Practice A: Look at the underlined word in each sentence. Is it being used as a participle adjective or a verb?

1. When I was a child, history bored me.
2. That's an interesting idea.
3. This soup is disgusting.
4. The disgusted customer asked the server to take the terrible food away.
5. Please stop complimenting me. You're embarrassing me!
6. Blushing, the embarrassed man apologized.
7. After a long day of work, I'm exhausted.
8. I was frightened, so I ran.
9. The snack satisfied my hunger.
10. I became a zoologist because animals have always fascinated me.

Practice B: Select the correct word for each sentence.

1. We're [boring/bored]. There's nothing to do.
2. Sometimes when I watch the news, I am [disgusting/disgusted] by the terrible things that people do.
3. Can you tell me more? I am [interesting/interested] in your ideas.
4. I couldn't pay for my groceries because I had forgotten my wallet. How [embarrassing/embarrassed]!
5. I need a break. Carrying this furniture is [exhausting/exhausted].
6. Some people find spiders [frightening/frightened].
7. This is [tiring/tired] work.
8. It was so [terrifying/terrified] that I couldn't move.
9. Oh! I didn't see you there. You [startling/startled] me.
10. It was such a [fascinating/fascinated] movie that I watched it several times.